

October 29 - 31, 2013
2nd Annual Symposium

National Museum of the American Indian
Washington, D.C.

The mission of First Stewards is to bring together Native American, Alaskan Native, and U.S. Pacific Island tribal governments and indigenous communities for the purpose of ensuring that the government of the United States recognizes them and their expertise as the First Stewards of the lands and waters of North America, Alaska, and the U.S. Pacific Islands; supports their natural resource management efforts; and consults with them for guidance in all policies that affect their way of life. By doing so, America's resiliency and ability to adapt to climate change will be strengthened.
