

Subject: Managing Your Benefits Through Change (FEGLI, FEHB, and FEDVIP)

Join the Federal Long Term Care Insurance Program (FLTCIP) and The Society of American Indian Government Employees (SAIGE) in an educational webinar exclusively on your health benefits.

Life changes and your benefits often need to change at the same time. Marriage, death, divorce, birth or adoption of a child are all major life events when you may need to adjust your benefits. Do you know the requirements? What are your options and time limits when you need to increase or decrease your insurance coverage or provide benefits to new family members? Most people would also classify retirement as a major life event, but is it a "qualifying" life event? What do you need to know about your benefits at the time of retirement?
